

"SHERIFF, THEM THIEVES HAVE GONE AND DONE IT AGAIN."

San Francisco Chronicle

February 2, 2007

★★★★★ THE SHOW

"Standard wine bottles would be boring but for the trio of rascallions behind St. Helena's Three Thieves. First they brought back the 1-liter wine jug. Then they put their wine in 1-liter boxes, followed by 250-ml boxes perfect for smuggling into the opera.

Chronicle / Darryl Bush

Now that the Thieves are making a standard 750 ml bottle of 2005 The Show California Cabernet Sauvignon ($15), they enlisted the Nashville design shop Hatch Show Print -- famous for bold-lettered music posters -- to create the label. The rodeo motif fits well with the Thieves' jocular, wine-cowboy image. And the wine's a pretty darn good value, with nice blackberry and cherry flavors that segue into vanilla on the medium-long finish. Sheriff, them Thieves have gone and done it again."

-W. Blake Gray

"And the wine's a pretty darn good value, with nice blackberry and cherry flavors that segue into vanilla on the medium-long finish."